

Announcement

Board Appointment

Communis plc is pleased to announce the appointment of Alistair Blaxill, the Company's Managing Director, Major Accounts, to its Board of Directors as an Executive Director. Alistair joins the Board with immediate effect.

Alistair joined Communis in March 2007 from Hewlett Packard and has responsibility for many of Communis' major client relationships. During his time at Hewlett Packard, Alistair was Director of Technology Services for the UK and Ireland, responsible for the delivery of all IT services to Hewlett Packard's corporate and enterprise customers, worth about £600m per annum.

Prior to this, Alistair was a Managing Director and member of the Operational Board at IT Managed Services firm, Synstar plc, between 2003 and 2004 and also UK Managing Director at XKO Group plc from 2000 until 2003.

Communis CEO, Steve Vaughan, commented:

"On behalf of the Directors of Communis, I am delighted to welcome Alistair to the Board. He will help the board obtain a wider and deeper understanding of how our customers' needs and aspirations are developing, which will ensure that our growth and development plans remain focused on generating products and services that add real value to our customers' marketing activities."

For further information please contact:

Communis plc

Steve Vaughan, Chief Executive

Financial Dynamics

Edward Bridges

James Melville-Ross

Matt Dixon

0207 8313113